NEW-YORK, Auguſt 22.

FORT WILLIAM-HENRY, being on the third Inſtant beſieged by a great Army of the French, was on the 9th Inſtant, after a vigorous Reſiſtance, obliged to yield to the ſuperior Force of the Enemy. Thus far is certain; but as to ſome Circumſtances attending what follows, we wait for Confirmation. What at preſent is generally received among us, as Truth, is, That the Enemy conſiſted of at leaſt Eight Thouſand Men; ſome make the Number much greater, and carry it even to Fourteen or Fifteen Thouſand: That the greateſt Part were REGULAR TROOPS, to theſe were added about a Thouſand FRENCH INDIANS, and that the Reſt of their Army were CANADIANS. That our Garriſon conſiſted of between two and three Thouſand: That they ſuſtained the Siege till they could hold out no longer, and had burſt the greateſt Part of their Cannon, and ſpent almoſt all their Ammunition. How many of the Garriſon were loſt in the Siege, is not yet known (ſome ſay about One Hundred) nor the Number of the Enemy that were ſlain (but it is ſaid about fourteen or fifteen Hundred:) That the Fort ſubmitted upon a Capitulation, with Leave to march out with their Arms and Baggage, ſome Ammunition, one Piece of Cannon, and all the Honours of War. That the French IMMEDIATELY after the Capitulation, MOST PERFIDIOUSLY, let their INDIAN BLOOD-HOUNDS looſe upon our People; whereupon a few ran off with their Arms, and light Cloathing that they had upon their Backs during the Siege, and were purſued by the Indians ſix or ſeven Miles on their Way to Fort-Edward; all the Reſt were deſpoiled of their Arms;——The moſt were ſtripped ſtark-naked; many were killed and ſcalped, Officers not excepted. All the Engliſh Indians and Negroes in the Garriſon were ſeized, and either captivated or ſlain. The Throats of moſt, if not all the Women, were cut, their Bellies ripped open, their Bowels torn out, and thrown upon the Faces of their DEAD or DYING Bodies; and 'tis ſaid, that all the Women are murdered one Way or other: That the Children were taken by the Heels, and their Brains beat out againſt the Trees or Stones, and not one of them ſaved. Some of the Fugitives that reached New-York on this Day, affirm this, as what they ſaw, in the whole, or in great Part, executed before they eſcaped: The Report of ſuch Cruelty and Barbarity could hardly be believed, were we not aſſured of the horrible Maſſacre of ſeveral Hundreds of General BRADDOCK's wounded Men; of whom we hear not of one that ſurvived the Carnage; were we not ALSO aſſured of the Murder of all the Sick and Wounded of the Garriſon at Oſwego, notwithſtanding the previous Capitulation.

'Tis certain that the Growth of the Britiſh Colonies has long been the grand Object of FRENCH ENVY; and 'tis ſaid that their Officers have Orders from their Superiors, to check it at all Events, and to that End, to make the preſent War as bloody and deſtructive as poſſible! 'Tis evident, that all their Meaſures tend this Way. Who can tell, that One of the Two Hundred that fell into their Hands in the laſt Month near Ticonderoga, has been ſpared? And is not every News-Paper ſtill ſtained with the innocent Blood of Women and Children, and of unarmed Sufferers, who were plowing their Land, or gathering in their Harveſt, on our Frontiers?

To what a Pitch of Perfidy and Cruelty is the French Nation arrived! Would not an ancient Heathen ſhudder with Horror, on hearing ſo hideous a Tale! Is it the MOST CHRISTIAN KING that could give ſuch Orders? Or could the moſt ſavage Nations ever exceed ſuch French Barbarities! Beſides this, was it ever known in the Pagan World, That Terms of Capitulation were not held inviolably ſacred!

Surely, if any Nation under the Heavens was ever provoked to the moſt rigid Severities in the Conduct of a War, it is ours!——It is hard for an Engliſhman to kill his Enemy that lies at his Feet begging his Life: But will it not be STRICTLY JUST, and ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY, from henceforward, that we (for our own Security and Self-preſervation, and to prevent the further ſhedding of innocent Blood) make ſome ſevere Examples of our inhuman Enemies when they fall into our Hands? Will not our armed Men be obliged for the future to reject all Terms of Capitulation, and not to aſk Quarter; but on the contrary, to ſell their Lives as dear as they can! CONSIDER OF IT, my Countrymen, TAKE ADVICE, AND SPEAK YOUR MINDS. [Printed by Order.]

New-York, 19th Auguſt, 1757.

On Friday the 12th Inſtant, an Expreſs arrived here from Albany, with an Account of the Surrender of Fort William-Henry, to a large Army of French. The ſame Day 700 Volunteers from this City alone, turned out, and next Day embarked for Albany, under the Command of Captain Jaſper Farmer, of the Artillery; Captain John Provoſt, of the Cadets; Captain James Depyſter, of the Grenadiers; and the Captains Dubois, Liſpenard, and Beekman, of the Militia. Moſt of Captain Johnſton's Troop of Horſe went up by Land. They were all ordered to return by Colonel Delancey, who met them at Eſopus. The following Letter, &c. is the moſt authentic Account we have yet received of the Loſs of Fort William-Henry.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated Auguſt 15.

I Set out for Fort-Edward laſt Tueſday, about Ten in the Morning, and found a vaſt Number of Militia all along the Road. Three Miles on this Side the Fort I met an Expreſs, who informed me Fort William-Henry had ſurrendered that Morning about 7 o'Clock. This News obliged me to ride ſmartly along though the Night was dark, and about Half an Hour after Eight, I got oppoſite the Fort, this Side the River, where I found Sir William Johnſon encamped with about 2500 of the Militia. A little before Nine, I got into the Fort, and in about ſeven Minutes Time, we were alarmed by a heavy firing of Muſquetry at the Camp over the River, on which the Ramparts, and all the Lines without, were mann'd, expecting the Place to be inveſted. About a Quarter of an Hour after, Sir William ſent Word, that their Centries had ſeen ſome Indians in the Woods, on which they fired, and that it had not been in his Power to hinder the Bulk of the Militia from doing the ſame; but that he had got them ſettled, and ſent Scouts into the Woods, to make what Diſcoveries they could. After this was over, a Gentleman gave me the following Account of the Siege and Surrender of Fort William-Henry.

That a Runner had brought the Account, that in the Morning on the 9th, they held a Council of War, and finding no Succours could be expected Time enough, and they having burſt their two 32 Pounders, two 18 Pounders, two 12 Pounders, two 9 Pounders, and two Braſs Mortars, and but 17 Shells left, they concluded to hoiſt the white Flag, which Montcalm anſwered, and the General Officers met half Way between the two Camps, and agreed to the following Capitulation: That they were to march out with all the Honours of War; with Drums beating, Colours flying, with their Arms charged, a Field Piece and Match lighted; that they were to take as much Baggage as the Men could carry on their Backs, and that they were to be eſcorted by their Grenadiers, within two Miles of Fort-Edward; where we were to receive them with 500 of our Troops, and Colonel Young to remain as a Hoſtage for the ſafe Return of their Eſcort. This Day our Officers and Men ſpent in packing up their moſt valuable Effects. Next Morning General Webb ordered 500 pick'd Grenadiers to be drawn out, in order to meet our Men and the Eſcort; but at 7 o'Clock we ſaw about 30 of our People coming running down the Hill, out of the Woods, along the Road that comes from Fort William-Henry, moſtly ſtripped to their Shirt and Breeches, and many without Shirts, who gave the following Account: That agreeable to the Capitulation, our Men, with their Eſcort, were drawn out in their Lines; when Montcalm called aſide our Field Officers, and ſaid, the Indians always expected, and would have Plunder; and for fear of bad Conſequences, adviſed them to give their Packs to them, which they did, though with Reluctance: As ſoon as the Indians got them, they began to maſſacre all the Sick and Wounded within the Lines, and before both Armies; next they hawled all the Negroes, Mulattoes and Indian Soldiers, out of the Ranks, butchering and ſcalping them; when our Men began to march, they then began without Diſtinction, ſtripped and tomahawk'd both Officers and Men, and all in the greateſt Confuſion took to their Heels; and thus thoſe that came in made their Eſcape. General Webb ordered out 500 Men to meet and cover our flying Parties. I left Fort-Edward, laſt Friday at Eleven, and arrived here Yeſterday at Ten, and when I came away, ſome of our Men were ſtill dropping in. Poor Doctor Colhoun was yet among the Miſſing; Colonels Monroe and Young, with Williams the Engineer, and ſeveral Officers, are not yet heard of. Some that are come in ſay, they ſaw them go back and throw themſelves under the Protection of Montcalm and the Regulars; but the Lord knows what French Treachery will do. Shall we never have Revenge!

Juſt as I was coming away, the Army was drawing up to march from Fort-Edward towards the Lake; but one who left it about two Hours after, ſays, that on a ſcouting Party coming in, there were Orders to halt, on what Account we have not yet heard; but I am afraid they have demoliſhed the Fort, and are gone, for on Wedneſday we ſaw a great Smoak aſcend about that Place.

The Sail-maker eſcaped, and is here; there were ſeven of our Carpenters at the Lake, ſix of which are arriv'd; one Cafferly, a young Lad, not yet come in.

Sunday, Half-after One. Juſt now I have heard that Colonels Monroe and Young, with ſeveral Officers, are ſafe with Montcalm, and about 300 Men, ſeveral of whom he took from the Indians, which are all gone. Perhaps Doctor Colhoun is with them. This Town is now incloſed.——Thoſe who were made Priſoners at Fort William-Henry, are going to York to guard the Fort, as they, by Capitulation, are not to be employed in the Field againſt the French theſe 18 Months.

From the CONNECTICUT GAZETTE, dated Auguſt 20, 1757.

Extract of a Letter from Boſton, dated Auguſt 15.

"We are greatly chagrin'd at the Loſs of the Fort; never was a more Univerſal Concern than appears in every Countenance: 'Tis ſaid the Governor is uſing Means to raiſe a fourth Part of the Militia, with the Company of Cadets, to march as ſoon as poſſible. Our Meſſengers of bad News, ſeem to be like Job's, one on the Back of another. ——By a Veſſel juſt arrived from Halifax, we hear our Fleet was not ſail'd five Days ago, and that there was 8 Sail more of French Men of War arrived at Louiſburg: That they have now in that Harbour 23 Line of Battle Ships, Bomb-Ketches, &c.

God preſerve us, for Succeſs ſeems to attend all their Undertakings, and we are really in a melancholy Situation.

P. S. It was the certain Advices of the French having ſo large a Fleet at Louiſburg, (by a Veſſel they took bound from that Place to Old-France, with a Number of Engliſh Priſoners on board) that ſtopped our our Fleet from ſailing, when they were unmoored, and the Tranſports all on board."

A Letter from Boſton, dated Auguſt 15, ſays,

"A Veſſel arrived at Marblehead the 14th Inſtant, in forty Days from Cadiz: She tells, that the King of Pruſſia is Maſter of all Bohemia, two of his Brothers killed, and Marſhal Brown, the Auſtrian General.——The Antigallican Prize is yet detained, and the Captain of the Privateer has been obliged to abſcond, leſt he ſhould be ſhut up in Priſon.——Two French Privateers have been ſeen off the Banks of Newfoundland.——Five of the French Men of War that were lately at Louiſburg, were ſent up the River St. Lawrence, having on board the moſt valuable Effects of the People of that Iſland, they ſuſpecting the Engliſh Deſign."

The Snow Earl of Loudoun arrived here on Saturday laſt from Jamaica: She was formerly a Privateer out of this Port under Capt. Valentine, and taken in the Weſt-Indies by two Frigates, after a long and obſtinate Engagement, but ſoon after was retaken and ſent into Jamaica. By her we learn, That Capt. Murray arrived at Kingſton the 15th of July, in 6 Weeks from London, (which brings up the 3d of June) with 160 Soldiers, and brought the following Advices, viz.——That the Right Honourable Mr. Fox, as Paymaſter General; Lord Duplin, as Chancellor of the Exchequer; Lord Halifax, as Secretary of State; and Lord Egmont, as firſt Lord of Trade and Plantations; were all confirm'd in their reſpective Offices.——That the Dunkirk and Lancaſter Men of War, of 50 Guns each, have taken a 74 Gun French Man of War, and carried her into Portſmouth.——That the Rocheſter and Somerſet Men of War have alſo taken four large Store Ships, and a French Privateer of 26 Guns, in the Bay of Biſcay; all of whom were ſafe arrived at Portſmouth, and the Store Ships valued at 50,000 l. each.——That the Antelope of 50 Guns has taken two French Merchant Ships, and a Privateer; and has alſo run on Shore a French Man of War of 46 Guns.——That his Majeſty's Ships the Eagle and Medway, of 60 Guns each, were ſeen off Plymouth with a large French 74 Gun Man of War, in tow, diſmaſted.——That Admiral Oſborne was ſail'd with 15 Line of Battle Ships for the Mediterranean.——That Admiral Boſcawen was ſhortly to ſail from Portſmouth, with 9 Sail of three Deck Ships, on a ſecret Expedition.——

——Capt. Murray alſo confirmed the Engagement in Bohemia, wherein the King of Pruſſia has ſlain and taken Priſoners 13,000 of the Enemy.

On Sunday Morning Captain Caron arrived here in 13 Days from St. Kitts, and ſays, that two other Veſſels belonging to Philadelphia beſides thoſe before mentioned, are taken by the French.

There is now a Subſcription on Foot in this City for purchaſing a Number of Fire-Arms to be ready on any Emergency; and we hear there are upwards of 1300 already ſubſcribed for; and we make no Doubt, but a Propoſal of that Kind, which is calculated with no other View than to ſerve the Public, will meet with a generous Reception, from all thoſe whoſe Circumſtances will permit them to contribute their Mite that Way.

New-London, Auguſt 17. This Day arrived here a French Prize Schooner, taken by Capt. Mumford of this Port, who was himſelf lately taken. Her Cargo conſiſts of Rum, White Sugar, Coffee and Rolled Tobacco. She came from Martinico, and was bound to Louiſburg.

BOSTON, Auguſt 15.

Laſt Thurſday Capt. Phillips arrived here from Halifax, which Place he left the 4th Inſtant, and by him we have Advice, that the Troops were all embarked, and the Fleet ready to ſail, and as the Wind was fair the Day after Captain Phillips came out, it is thought the Fleet took the Advantage of it, and ſailed on the deſtined Expedition.——That ſuch mighty Quantities of Proviſions, eſpecially live Stock, were brought into Halifax, that they would not pay the Freight thither; and that ſeveral of the Veſſels with Proviſions, intended to accompany the Fleet.

Captain Phillips alſo informs, that a Scout of Captain Rogers's Company, had been out, and three of them being ſeparated from the Reſt, at a Place called Muſcodorban-Creek, twelve of the Enemy came from the other Side of the Creek, and took and carried them off.

About a Week ago Sir William Pepperrell, and ſeveral other Gentlemen of Note, ſet out for Springfield, where a large Body of Troops are aſſembling, to be under Sir William, for the Protection of our Frontiers; or to be otherwiſe employed, as his Majeſty's Service ſhall require.

We hear that every Troop of Horſe in the Province, except his Excellency's Guard, is ordered to march forthwith to the Frontiers.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, July 25.

"Arrived here Captain Phipps, in the Huzza Privateer, belonging to this Place, having taken in her Cruize a French Snow laden with Melaſſes and Bale Goods, which is not yet arrived, but hourly expected.——July 29, arrived here a Brig from the remaining Part of the Engliſh Fleet, by whom we have Advice, that the Windſor a 60 Gun Ship, had taken a Ship bound to Canada, ſaid to be worth 50,000 l. Sterling, 30,000 l. of it in Specie.——She left the Windſor and her Prize about 8 Days ago, having alſo under her Convoy 18 Tranſports, with 2000 Highlanders on board. Auguſt 1. The Halifax Detachment, conſiſting of 700 Rank and File, embarked on board the Men of War; they are to be commanded by Colonel Lawrence, Major Murray, 7 Captains, 21 Subalterns, and are the beſt Troops belonging to this Province.——Captain Rous has the Winchelſea, and carries down Lord Loudoun: He commands the Convoy of the Troops, and has 8 Frigates: They are to follow the large Ships at ſome few Leagues Diſtance.——Auguſt 4. The Troops are all embarked, and ſail the firſt fair Wind."

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 25.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated Auguſt 17.

"This Morning arrived here ſeveral Officers, which had been miſſing, and thought to be killed; who ſay, they all turned back to Montcalm, at Fort William-Henry, with Colonel Monroe, who, with Colonel Young, are all ſafe arrived at Fort-Edward, and may be expected here Tomorrow, Colonel Young excepted, he being wounded. They don't think we had above ten or twelve killed after the Place was taken; but that the Indians had carried off ſeveral Priſoners, whom Montcalm engaged, upon his Honour, to return ſafe, as ſoon as he came up with them. The Fort is intirely deſtroyed, and all our Entrenchments filled up, but they have left their own ſtanding. Doctor Colhoun is well; I ſaw a Letter from him."

From New-York we learn, that Twenty Thouſand Pounds Sterling Ranſom had been offered for the Windſor's Prize; and that three other Men of War came out with the Highlanders beſides the Windſor.

GIVEN at the City of Annapolis, this 17th Day of Auguſt, in the Seventh Year of his Lordſhip's Dominion, Annoque Domini 1757.

HOR°. SHARPE.

J. Ross, Cl. Con.

By a Gentleman from the Northward, who left Philadelphia on Sunday laſt, we are informed, that the Account of there being 23 Sail of French Men of War at Louiſburg, was generally Diſbelieved; but on the contrary, that there were but a few, and the Place in a diſtreſſed Condition.

By the Arethuſa, Capt. Stevenſon, arrived in Virginia, from Liverpool, we have the following Articles, viz.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

Extract of a Letter from the Eaſt-Indies, dated Dec. 15, 1756.

IN the Month of September we heard that our Settlement in Bengal was taken, and in the Beginning of October we had a Confirmation of it.

The Deſtruction of that Place will be a great Loſs to the Company. As I have ſeen the Letter which was ſent to the Governor and Council here, I ſhall give you the Subſtance of the Affair.

It ſeems the Governor and Council at Bengal protected an old Nabob, depoſed, from the Reſentment of the young one, his Succeſſor. The latter ſent to demand him, but the Engliſh refuſed to deliver him up, upon which he raiſed an Army of 30,000 Horſe, and the ſame Number of Foot, with three or 400 Elephants of War. The Engliſh ſent out Spies to diſcover their Number, which they never knew exactly till they were juſt upon them. They ſummoned the Fort to deliver up the old Nabob, promiſing upon that Condition to withdraw their Troops immediately; but this was again refuſed. The Enemy then threw up a ſmall Breaſt-work oppoſite to the Fort, and mounted two 12 Pounders upon it. They fired two or three Times in an Hour, but if they had fired till Dooms-day they could never have made a Breach. However, long before any real Attack had been made, the ——run away on board a Ship in the Morning; the Counſellors and their Wives in the Afternoon; leaving Mr. Holwell behind, who ſaid he would ſtay and defend the Place to the laſt Extremity. Being thus left with only a few Gentlemen and ſome military Officers, he called a Council of War. The Soldiers grumbling at their not being permitted to eſcape, he divided three Cheſts of the Treaſure among them, and ſecured the Keys of the Gates himſelf; and the next Morning ſtood to the Defence of the Place gallantly. The Moguls kept firing their two 12 Pounders, but to no Purpoſe; for all the Miſchief proceeded from the Counſellors Houſes being built cloſe round the Fort. In theſe Houſes the Enemy lodged themſelves and galled the Engliſh greatly. During all this Time the Fort fired conſtantly and diſlodged them ſeveral Times; but the third Day, (I think it was the third) moſt of our Men being killed, and all the reſt wounded (with only two Hours Ammunition left) Mr. Holwell thought to have made an honourable Retreat by hanging out a Flag of Truce to amuſe the Enemy; but the Ships in the River had dropt down ſeveral Miles from the Fort, and did not leave even a Boat for the others to eſcape in. The Soldiers that Night knocked off the Lock of the little Gate (Mr. Holwell having the Keys) and let in the Moguls, who immediately loaded them with Irons, and crammed them into a Place called the Black-hole, for that Night: But out of the 175 that went in, only 16 came out alive next Morning, occaſioned by the exceſſive Heat.

The next Day they carried Mr. Burdett to accompany Mr. Holwell up the Country, loaded with Irons, and gave them only Rice and Water for their Proviſion: They likewiſe obliged them to walk three Days through the Sun without any Covering; and when they arrived at their Journey's End put them into a Cow-houſe, where they narrowly eſcaped another Smothering. However, in three Days they diſmiſſed them. From thence we went to Muxdavatt.

The 28th of October we ſent three Ships full of Troops and Ammunition to reinſtate the Company's Servants, as we hear it will be delivered up to us ſhortly. The Company is reported to have loſt by this Affair two Crow of Rupees. Each Crow contains an Hundred Lack, and each Lack an Hundred Thouſand; that is twenty Millions of Rupees, which make two Millions two Hundred and Fifty Thouſand Pounds Sterling.

The ſame Day our Ambaſſadors arrived from Pooner, where they had been three Weeks treating with the Maratta Prince, to whom we have delivered Gheria, and they in Return have given us ſeveral Villages at Seven-rooke."

Admiralty-Office, June 11. The Lords of the Admiralty have received an Account, That on the 30th of laſt Month, between one and two in the Morning, his Majeſty's Ships the Eagle and Medway, being about 48 Deg. North, and two Deg. Weſt Long. from the Lizard, gave Chace to a large Ship under French Colours, ſtanding to the Eaſtward; and coming up with her about four they attacked her with a very briſk Fire for about three Quarters of an Hour, when ſhe ſtruck. She proves to be the Duke d'Aquitaine, commanded by the Sieur d'Eſquelen, of about 1500 Tons, mounts fifty Guns upon two Decks, all eighteen Pounders, had on board 493 Men, and belonged to the French Eaſt-India Company. She loſt in the Engagement about fifty killed, and a great many wounded, 22 very dangerouſly; and all her Maſts, Sails and Rigging broke away and fell over board before Night. She came from Liſbon, where ſhe landed ſome Months ago a very rich Cargo from the Eaſt-Indies; and when taken was only equipped for War, with Orders to cruize for ten or twelve Days off the Rock of Liſbon, in order to intercept the Mermaid, one of the twenty Gun Ships, which was on the Point of ſailing from Liſbon, with a Convoy. During her Cruize ſhe took an Engliſh Brig from Cadiz bound to Cork, which was ranſomed for 200 l. The Eagle had ten Men killed, and 32 wounded in the Engagement with the Duke d'Aquitaine; but as the Medway's Fire could only be employed in raking her, ſhe had only ten Men wounded. [London Gazette.]

LONDON, June 11.

The Militia Bill has paſſed both Houſes of Parliament.

Some People juſt come on Shore from the Duke d'Aquitaine, the Eagle's Prize, report, That the Officers have found 37 Cheſts of Money, and are in Hopes that ſhe is of more Value than ſhe was at her firſt Arrival at Liſbon.

We are well aſſured that the greateſt Part of the Miniſtry are ſettled: The Duke of Newcaſtle to be firſt Lord of the Treaſury; Mr. Pitt Secretary of State; Lord Hardwick Privy Seal; Lord Gower Maſter of the Horſe; Duke of Dorſet to have a Penſion; Mr. Legge Chancellor of the Exchequer; Lord Anſon Treaſurer of the Navy; and Lord Winchelſea to be continued firſt Lord of the Admiralty. 'Tis ſaid this Event has been brought about by a great Perſonage of the Law.
